

I've Taken My Dogs on Dozens of Road Trips—Here's What I Wouldn't Travel Without

Road-tripping with people is fun but traveling with my dogs is the best—though it does require a bit of extra gear.

VIA AMAZON.COM

Glow-in-the-dark or reflective collars

$18.34

Shop Now

Keeping track of my dogs in the dark is much easier with glow-in-the-dark sticks tied to their collars. Reflective or light-up collars can make them more visible to cars, helping keep them safe on the streets. This Nite Ize Nite Dawg collar uses LED lights to stay extra bright.